

BOURBON HORSES IN SARATOGA SPRING SALES

The sales of the thoroughbred yearlings from the great stock farms of New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and California, the proprietors of which breed for the public market, will be an appealing feature of the Saratoga August session of racing this season.

The great producers who have been assigned dates for sales by the Fasig-Tipton Company are Edward F. Simms, Miss Elizabeth Dangerfield, Chas. H. Berryman, the Balgown Stud, Williams & Radford, White & Garnett, Henry T. Oxnard, William Woodward, Kenneth D. Alexander, John H. Morris, Senator Johnson N. Camden, Capt. Philip M. Mr. Hancock was the breeder at Ellerslie and Claiborne, the former Virginia's oldest thoroughbred nursery, the latter a comparatively new establishment near Paris, of Baze, winner last season of the Maryland Handicap and the Laurel Stakes and this year of the Excelsior Handicap; also of Careful, winner of the Pimlico Oaks, Billy McLaughlin, Knobbie, Constance, Cleopatra, winner of the second Latonia championship, Dunboyne, winner of the Futurity of a couple of seasons back.

Great Secret.

A business concern in Boston has this pungent maxim prominently displayed in its front window: "A completed transaction is an asset; unfinished business is a liability." A modern efficiency expert could write a 60,000-word book on that text, and then really not say much more. The world is full of "starters" who never get anywhere. The big idea is to choose only worth while objectives and then finish what you start.—Albert Sidney Gregg.

WOMEN HELP REBUILD THEODORE ROOSEVELT HOME

At a luncheon given by Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of Theodore Roosevelt, to a large number of prominent club women, it was determined to make a concentrated effort by club women to assist the Woman's Roosevelt Memorial Association, of 1 East 57th street, to complete at once the restoration of Roosevelt House, the birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt.

Said Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, President of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, comprising over two million women, "I commend this movement to the General Federation and hope that each of its members will join the Woman's Roosevelt Memorial Association. Millions of American women should be glad to contribute each a little to keep as a memorial of their eminent friend the birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt."

The corner-stone of Roosevelt House was laid in January last by Major General Leonard Wood. The structure itself will incorporate much of the material of the old Roosevelt mansion, which is now to be accurately reproduced. When finished, it will contain the bedstead in which Theodore Roosevelt was born, together with other of the original furnishings, now in possession of the Roosevelt family. About $150,000 additional is needed for the work of reconstruction.

Calling in Cairo.

Englishmen who do not know Cairo sometimes take houses in remote and undesirable parts of the city. In "Egypt as We Knew It" Mrs. E. L. Butler amusingly describes how hard it is to find a person who has thus gone astray. Her husband, she says, wrote to a doctor for the address of some friends whom she knew he had attended. Here is the doctor's answer: "The M— lives in a house without a number in a street without a name next door to an Armenian butcher who, I think, has no sign, west of Abidin palace! The staircase has eighty-seven steps."

English Titles of Nobility.

The rank of earl was introduced into England at the time of the Conquest and succeeded the Saxon earldom. It continued the highest rank in England until Edward III created dukes in 1337 and Richard II created marquesses in 1385, both being superior to earls.

Safeguarding the Miner.

To protect the miner against his ancient enemy, inflammable gas a mining engineer has improved the standard type of miner's lamp. He has added a device which causes the lamp to emit a loud singing note as soon as the atmosphere becomes charged with inflammable gas.

No Room for the Incompetent.

Much of the work done in this world has to be undone. Incompetency is the greatest drawback to progress. Incompetents are the most costly members of society, and always will be. That's why there is always a premium on brains and skill, which combine to produce efficiency.—Exchange.

It didn't take experience long to locate the honest man, now to pass the endorsement to the next man.

COBBLER CLOSE TO COOLIDGE

Town Shoe Repairer, "Friend, Philosopher and Guide" of Vice President.

HELPS TO SHAPE HIS CAREER

Friendship Begun in College Days Continues Through Early Struggles and Subsequent Prominence in Politics.

Northampton, Mass.—James Lucey, member of shoes, is pegging away in his shop here with one eye on the newspapers for word of how the national capital treats Calvin Coolidge, his one-time associate in local politics, and now vice president.

When Vice President Coolidge, just before departing for Washington recently, grasped the cobbler's hand as the photographers snapped their cameras, he gave him a distinction that he was asked to explain. "Put Mr. Lucey down as my guide, philosopher and friend," he said. And so the cobbler is now nationally known.

What the vice president meant was more or less well known to Northampton folk. The story goes back to the days when Calvin Coolidge was a sophomore at Amherst college. With shoes to be repaired he sought Lucey's shop on Gothic street in this city, and then remained to listen to the cobbler's homely comments on the topics of the day.

Helped to Shape Career.

The student found the shoemaker's philosophy so engaging that during the remainder of his college course he went frequently to see him. As a lawyer later young Coolidge opened offices here, and while he waited for clients, continued his acquaintance with the cobbler. Throughout his career in the politics of the city and state, Mr. Coolidge dropped in at the shoe shop from time to time to exchange ideas with his friend and have the benefit of the latter's pointed political observations.

The youthful Coolidge took away lessons from the cobbler counsellor; Coolidge, the candidate, received the benefit of his influence, which was considerable in city politics, and when he rose to a position of state and national prominence he still received the loyal support of the shoe man.

Mr. Lucey, modestly explaining that Mr. Coolidge long since passed out of his range of influence, admits that he may have been of some help when the vice president was on the first rungs of the political ladder.

Cement Closer Friendship.

The cobbler says that the only time he ever crossed Calvin Coolidge seemed to make firmer the friendship between them. Mr. Coolidge had sought the election of a friend as mayor, and asked Mr. Lucey as a delegate to the party caucus to stand in his behalf, but the cobbler, already bound to the opposing candidate, refused. This evidence of loyalty to a prior allegiance served to heighten their mutual respect.

The shoemaker, a native of Ireland, came to Northampton forty years ago at the age of twelve. A family of eight children, seven of whom are now living, has made demands on his earning ability. Five are girls, one is a stenographer, two are teachers, a fourth, who was formerly a teacher, is now married and one is a clerk. Of the two boys one is a graduate of Holy Cross college, and the other is a student in the Northampton Commercial college.

9,211,295 AUTOS IN COUNTRY

License Fees in 1920 Totalled $102,034,106, Reports Federal Bureau of Public Roads.

Washington.—Motor cars registered in the United States last year numbered 9,211,295, an increase of 1,645,849 over the preceding year of 22 per cent, the bureau of public roads announced.

The registration and license fees amounted to $102,034,106.

In New York state alone the number of cars registered in 1920 exceeded the total registration for the United States in 1910, and the revenue derived in that state from this source was about equal to the entire registration revenues of the United States in 1913. Ninety-six per cent of the 1920 revenue was applied to road maintenance or construction.

Alice Has a Pheasant.

Tiffin, O.—A pheasant duplicating the historic stunt of Mary's lamb is attracting attention here. Each day a pheasant makes its appearance east of Melmore and meets Alice Grummel, ten years of age. After a few flutters to express its joy at the meeting, the bird gravely walks with her to school. Sometimes the pheasant flies part of the way and again will perch on its little friend's shoulder and ride. The pheasant first appeared three weeks ago and, under encouragement of a few crumbs, has repeated the walk each day.

Ex-Admiral Sixty-Eight, Cobbler's Aid, Vienna.—With former officers of the army and navy as pupils, a shoemaking school has been opened here.

Among the students is a former vice admiral, sixty-eight years old, who is enrolled as a cobbler's apprentice and carries his union card.
